FINDING THE RIGHT COURSE

Alliance Française offers programs suitable for all levels of fluency (very basic to advanced).

- LEVEL A1: BASIC USER

Achieve a basic level of proficiency allowing you to understand and use common daily expressions in the present tense. Introduce yourself, ask and answer simple questions about personal matters, and express likes and dislikes.

- LEVEL A2: ELEMENTARY USER

Communicate with simple and commonly used sentences, perform routine tasks such as describing objects, making a purchase and discussing familiar topics. Relate past events and talk about future projects.

- LEVELS B1/B2: INDEPENDENT USER

Understand the main points of clear standard comments on familiar matters regularly encountered at work, school, leisure, etc. Present your résumé, express feelings, relate events, negotiate and give opinions.

- LEVELS C1/C2: PROFICIENT USER

You are quite functional in the language and, therefore, can choose to build your knowledge by enrolling in courses that meet specific needs and help you achieve precise linguistic objectives, depending on your interests.

OFFICIAL EXAMINATION CENTRE - CERTIFICATIONS &amp; DIPLOMAS

Alliance Française Halifax is an official examination centre for several French diplomas and certificates.

Each assesses the candidate's level in speaking, writing, listening and reading.

The rating systems of these tests and diplomas are based on the Common European Framework for Languages.

- DEL F & DAL F (Diplôme d'Etudes en Langue Française and Diplôme Approfondi en Langue Française) are official diplomas awarded by the French Department of Education to certify a non-native speaker's competence in general French. A junior version of DELF is also available to secondary-school students.

- TCF (Test de Connaissance du Français) assesses candidates' level in French for general purposes. It is intended for people who are not native French speakers who, for professional, personal or academic reasons, want to have their competency in French certified simply and reliably. Often required for Canadian students applying to study in French universities.

- TEF (Test d'Evaluation du Français) is a comprehensive language placement test for non-native French speakers who wish to obtain a quick and precise snapshot of their general language skills for professional or personal reasons (such as immigration to Canada or studies in France). It is also recognized by Citizenship and Immigration Canada.

- DAEFLE (Diplôme d'Aptitude à l'Enseignement du Français Langue Etrangère) is a diploma provided by the Alliance Française de Paris and the CNED (Centre National d'Enseignement à Distance). This diploma is designed for professors and those who intend to become teachers.
